

Dear Parents,

The following is the required summer reading for Mrs. Myer's Third and Fourth Grade class.

Those who are entering the third grade are required to read Clementine by Sara Pennypacker and James and the Giant Peach by Roald Dahl

For those who are entering the fourth grade, those students are required to read The Yearling by Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings.

For those students who have read The Yearling in class last year, The Adventures of Tom Sawyer by Mark Twain and Little House on the Prairie by Laura Ingalls Wilder will be your child's summer reading.

After reading the books, your child is required to do the attached book report and to turn it in the first day of school.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Myer
